

Share Trading and Conflicts Policy

Webjet Group Limited

Version 2.0

Version Control.

Document Owner/s	Group CEO & MD, and Company Secretary
Document Name	Share Trading and Conflicts Policy
Version Control	1.0 Document created on demerger and formation of Webjet Group Limited. 2.0 Addition of Purpose (Section 2), Review clause (Section 21), reference to key regulatory requirements
Material Changes	No material changes
Approved by	Webjet Group Limited Board
Date Approved	21 August 2025
Review Period	Annual
Date of Next Review	August 2026
Regulatory Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Internal Risk Governance• ASX Listing Rules – particularly Listing Rule 12.9 to 12.12 and Guidance Note 27 on Trading Policies.• Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) – especially the insider trading provisions in s1042A–1043L Corporations Act (Cth)• Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 (Cth)

Supporting Documents.

Document Name	Description
Risk Management Framework	Framework that sets out the totality of systems, processes, and methodologies for the management of risk at Webjet Group Limited
Market Disclosure and Communication Policy	Disclosure requirements aligned to ASX requirements.

The material contained in this document, including all attachments, is the copyright of Webjet Group Limited. No part may be reproduced, used or distributed for any purpose, without the prior written consent of Webjet Group Limited. This document, including all attachments, is confidential and use, reproduction or distribution of this document or any part of it for any purpose, other than for the purpose for which it is issued, is strictly prohibited.

Table of Contents.

1. Introduction.....	4
2. Purpose.....	4
3. Defined terms.....	4
4. Insider trading.....	5
5. What is inside information?	5
6. What is dealing in securities?	6
7. When Employees may deal.....	6
8. When Employees may not deal.....	6
9. When a Designated Officer may deal.....	6
10. When a Designated Officer may not deal.....	7
11. Clearance from the Approving Officer.	7
12. Temporary halts on dealings.	7
13. Exceptional circumstances.	8
14. Dealings by associated persons.....	8
15. Communicating inside information.....	8
16. Financing of dealings.	9
17. Speculative dealing.....	9
18. Conflicts of interest.....	9
19. Breach of policy.....	9
20. Assistance and additional information.	9
21. Policy Review	10

1. Introduction.

The ordinary shares of the Company are listed on ASX.

1.1 This policy outlines:

- a) when Designated Officers and Employees may deal in Company Securities;
- b) when Designated Officers and Employees may deal in the securities of another entity;
- c) procedures to reduce the risk of insider or inappropriate trading of the shares of the Company; and
- d) when Designated Officers may hold office in or be actively involved or interested in any business or activity which is the same or similar to the business of the Company or which may adversely impact on the standing or reputation of the Group.

2. Purpose.

2.1 To set standards for trading in company securities and managing conflicts of interest in a way that protects the company, its employees, and shareholders from reputational and legal risk.

2.2 This policy applies to directors, executives, employees, contractors, and in some cases, connected persons (family members, entities they control).

3. Defined terms.

In this policy:

Approving Officer means:

- a) for a Designated Officer who is not a Director, the CEO of the Company from time to time;
- b) for a Director (except the Chair), the Chair from time to time; and
- c) for the Chair or the Chair of the Board Audit and Risk Committee from time to time.

ASX means ASX Limited.

Blackout Period means each period between:

- a) 1 October and the date of the release of the Company's half year results to ASX;
- b) 1 April and the date of the announcement of the Company's full year results to ASX; and
- c) 12.01am on the preceding day and one hour after each of the following events:
 - i. publication by ASX (on the Company Announcement Platform) of the Company's half year results;
 - ii. publication by ASX (on the Company Announcement Platform) of the Company's full year results; and
 - iii. the formal convening of each annual general meeting of the Company; and
- d) any other period specifically designated by the Board to be a 'Blackout Period'.

Board means the board of Directors of the Company.

Chair means the chair of the Board.

Group CEO & MD means the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Company means Webjet Group Limited.

Company Securities includes:

- a) shares in the Company or a Group member;
- b) options over the shares set out in paragraph a);
- c) any other financial products of the Group traded on ASX; and
- d) any derivative or associated instruments the value of which is determined (in whole or in part) by any security listed in paragraph a), b) or c).

Designated Officer means all key management personnel (as defined in the Accounting Standards) and all other senior managers engaged in the executive management of the Group (includes a Director) or who have been advised by the Company Secretary that they are subject to the requirements of this policy, whether as a director or employee of the Group or as a consultant to the Group.

Director means a director of the Company.

Employee means an employee of the Company or any of its controlled entities.

Executive Trading Windows means each six week period after the date of:

- a) the release of the Company's half year results to ASX;
- b) the announcement of the Company's full year results to ASX; and
- c) the Company's annual general meeting.

Group means the Company and each of its controlled entities.

4. Insider trading.

- 4.1 If a person has information about securities and the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the information is inside information, it is likely to be illegal for the person to:
- a) deal in the securities;
 - b) procure another person to deal in the securities; or
 - c) give the information to another person who the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, is likely to:
 - i. deal in the securities; or
 - ii. procure someone else to deal in the securities.
- 4.2 Insider trading is a criminal offence. It is punishable by substantial fines or imprisonment or both. A company may also be liable if an employee or director engages in insider trading.
- 4.3 Insider trading may also attract civil penalties. A court may impose substantial pecuniary penalties for insider trading and order payment of compensation to persons who suffer loss or damage because of insider trading.

5. What is inside information?

- 5.1 Inside information is information that:
- a) is not generally available; and
 - b) if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of the relevant securities.
- 5.2 It is not a requirement of the law that only information of the Company can be inside information in respect of the Company Securities. Information of another company / entity will be inside information in respect of the Company Securities if it is information which, if generally available, would be expected to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company Securities.
- 5.3 Information is generally available if it:
- a) consists of readily observable matter;
 - b) has been made known in a manner that would, or would be likely to, bring it to the attention of persons who commonly invest in securities of the kind whose price might be affected by the information and a reasonable period for that information to be disseminated has elapsed since it was made known; or
 - c) consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from information falling under clauses a) or b).

6. What is dealing in securities?

6.1 Dealing in securities includes:

- a) applying for, acquiring or disposing of, securities;
- b) entering into an agreement to apply for, acquire or dispose of, securities; and
- c) granting, accepting, acquiring, disposing, exercising or discharging an option or other right or obligation to acquire or dispose of securities.

6.2 The following do not constitute dealing in Company Securities:

- a) a decision to join, or subscribe for shares under, any share purchase plan or dividend reinvestment plan;
- b) a decision to participate in, or subscribe for shares under, any corporate action open to all shareholders; and
- c) exercise of an option or other right to subscribe for Company Securities.

7. When Employees may deal.

Subject to paragraph 8 below, an Employee (who is not a Designated Officer) may deal in Company Securities or the listed securities of another entity if he or she does not have information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is inside information in relation to Company Securities or the securities of the other entity.

8. When Employees may not deal.

8.1 An Employee (who is not a Designated Officer) must not deal or procure another person to deal in Company Securities or the listed securities of another entity:

- a) in the period commencing at 12.01am on the preceding day and ending one hour after each of the following events:
 - i. publication by ASX (on the Company Announcement Platform) of the Company's half year results to ASX;
 - ii. publication by ASX (on the Company Announcement Platform) of the Company's full year results; and
 - iii. the formal convening of each annual general meeting of the Company;
- b) if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is inside information in relation to Company Securities or the securities of the other entity; or
- c) if the Chair has by notice to the Employees under paragraph 12 temporarily halted or restricted dealing in Company Securities.

It is to be noted that an Employee who:

- a) has information concerning the Group is precluded from dealing in the securities of another entity if that information would be inside information in respect of the securities of the other entity; and
- b) has information concerning another entity is precluded from dealing in the Company Securities if that information would be inside information in respect of the Company Securities.

9. When a Designated Officer may deal.

9.1 Subject to paragraph 10, a Designated Officer may deal in Company Securities:

- a) during the Executive Trading Windows provided he or she immediately notifies the Approving Officer of the dealing; or
- b) outside the Executive Trading Windows provided he or she has complied with paragraph 11 prior to the dealing.

- 9.2 A Designated Officer may deal in the listed securities of another entity if he or she does not have information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is inside information in relation to those securities.
- 9.3 While not seeking to limit the right of a Designated Officer to deal in Company Securities outside the Executive Trading Windows, the preference of the Company is, and Designated Officers are encouraged, that, as a general rule, dealings in Company Securities should take place within an Executive Trading Window.

10. When a Designated Officer may not deal.

- 10.1 A Designated Officer must not deal or procure another person to deal in Company Securities:
- a) if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is inside information in relation to Company Securities;
 - b) during a Blackout Period;
 - c) at any time that the Chair has by notice given under paragraph 12 to the Designated Officers and / or Employees temporarily halted or restricted dealing in Company Securities; or
 - d) outside the Executive Trading Windows if he or she has not complied fully with paragraph 11 prior to the dealing.
- 10.2 A Designated Officer may not deal or procure another person to deal in the listed securities of another entity if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is inside information in relation to those securities.

11. Clearance from the Approving Officer.

- 11.1 Before dealing in Company Securities under paragraph 8.1(b), a Designated Officer must first inform (in writing) and obtain a clearance (in writing) from the Approving Officer.
- 11.2 The Approving Officer must give a clearance unless:
- a) there is any matter which would be or be reasonably likely to be classified as inside information which is not generally available relevant to the Group or Company Securities (whether the Designated Officer knows about the matter / information or otherwise) current at the time when the Designated Officer requests clearance or proposes to deal in Company Securities; or
 - b) the Approving Officer believes that the proposed dealing breaches this policy or any other corporate governance standard of the Company; or
 - c) the Approving Officer believes that the proposed dealing, if undertaken, may adversely impact on the reputation and standing of the Company.
- 11.3 The Approving Officer must:
- a) keep a written record of:
 - i. any information received from a Designated Officer in connection with this policy; and
 - ii. any clearance given under this policy; and
 - b) send a copy of the written record to the Company Secretary for safe keeping.
- 11.4 The Company Secretary must keep a file of any written record referred to in clause 11.3.

12. Temporary halts on dealings.

- 12.1 Where the Chair reasonably believes that the circumstances warrant a temporary halt or restriction on dealing in Company Securities, he or she may:
- a) revoke any earlier clearance given under clause 11 for a Designated Officer to deal in Company Securities; or
 - b) for such period as determined by the Chair, declare that no dealings in Company Securities by an Employee or a Designated Officer are to take place.

- 12.2 The Chair may decide (in his / her absolute discretion) if circumstances are sufficiently exceptional to warrant a temporary halt or restriction on dealing in Company Securities under clause 12.1 and, if so, the duration of that temporary halt or restriction on dealing in Company Securities.
- 12.3 For clarity, the Chair is not limited in the exercise of his / her absolute discretion to impose a temporary halt or restriction on dealing in Company Securities to only those circumstances where there is inside information in relation to the Group or the Company Securities which is not generally available.

13. Exceptional circumstances.

- 13.1 The Approving Officer may give clearance for a Designated Officer to sell (but not buy) Company Securities in exceptional circumstances where the Designated Officer would otherwise not be able to do so under this policy. For example, if the Designated Officer has a pressing financial commitment that cannot otherwise be satisfied.
- 13.2 The Approving Officer must refuse to give clearance under the exception in paragraph 13.1 if there is a matter about which there is inside information which is not generally available in relation to Company Securities (whether or not the Designated Officer knows about the matter) when the Designated Officer requests clearance or proposes to deal in Company Securities.
- 13.3 The Approving Officer will decide if circumstances are exceptional.

14. Dealings by associated persons.

- 14.1 If a Designated Officer is not permitted to deal in the Company Securities, he or she must use all reasonable endeavours to stop any dealing in the Company Securities by any associated person (including family or nominee companies, private investment funds and family trusts).
- 14.2 For the purposes of clause 14.1, and subject to clause 14.3, a Designated Officer must:
- a) inform any associated person of the periods during which the Designated Officer may and may not deal in Company Securities; and
 - b) request any associated person to inform the Designated Officer immediately after they have dealt in Company Securities.
- 14.3 A Designated Officer does not have to comply with clauses 14.1 and 14.2 to the extent that to do so would breach their obligations of confidence to the Group.

15. Communicating inside information.

- 15.1 If an Employee / Designated Officer has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is inside information in relation to Company Securities or the listed securities of another entity, the Employee / Designated Officer must not directly or indirectly communicate that information to another person if he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would or would be likely to:
- a) deal in Company Securities or those securities of the other entity; or
 - b) procure another person to deal in Company Securities or the securities of the other entity.
- 15.2 An Employee / Designated Officer must not inform colleagues (except the Approving Officer) about inside information or its details.

16. Financing of dealings.

- 16.1 It is expected that a Designated Officer will not seek to finance a dealing in Company Securities by means of a margin facility, share lending facility, hedging or other arrangement that involves the use of Company Securities as security or collateral for the funding used or to be used to acquire Company Securities or the shares or other securities of another entity (collectively referred to in this clause as 'Scrip Finance Facility').
- 16.2 If a Designated Officer wishes to use a Scrip Finance Facility to assist in the acquisition of Company Securities or the shares or other securities of another entity, he or she must first inform (in writing), and obtain a clearance (in writing) from, the Approving Officer.

17. Speculative dealing.

A Designated Officer must not deal at any time in Company Securities on considerations of a short term or speculative nature.

18. Conflicts of interest.

- 18.1 Subject to clause 18.2, a Designated Officer must not hold office or shares or other securities in, or deal in the shares or other securities of, another entity if:
- a) the other entity is engaged or concerned or interested in any business or activity which is the same or similar to the business (or a material part of it) of the Company; or
 - b) the other entity may, in the ordinary course of its business or activities, engage or be concerned or interested in any business or activity that may adversely affect, on any reasonable and objective basis, the business standing or reputation of the Company; or
 - c) the participation of the Designated Officer as a shareholder, officer or in any other capacity in the other entity would, or would be likely in the future to, result in that Designated Officer's participation in the management of the Company being materially and adversely affected; or
 - d) in the case of dealing in the shares or other securities of any other entity, he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is inside information in relation to those securities.
- (It is to be noted that a Designated Officer who has information concerning the Company is precluded from dealing in the securities of another entity if that information would be inside information in respect of the securities of the other entity.)
- 18.2 Nothing in clauses a) to c) (inclusive) will prevent a Designated Officer from holding shares or other securities in another entity if both of the following apply:
- a) the holding is immaterial in the context of that other entity (for listed companies, the holding must be less than 5% and for unlisted companies, the maximum holding is to be determined on a case by case basis); and
 - b) the holding is not material in the context of the financial and personal circumstances of the Designated Officer.

19. Breach of policy.

A breach of this policy by an Employee / Designated Officer is serious and may lead to disciplinary action, including dismissal in more serious cases. It may also be a breach of the law.

20. Assistance and additional information.

Employees / Designated Officers who are unsure:

- a) whether any information that they have in their possession may restrict their ability to deal in Company Securities (or the securities of any other company); or

- b) if a holding of shares or other securities in another entity or a dealing in Company Securities or the shares or other securities of another entity is permitted under this Policy, should contact the Approving Officer or the CEO.

21. Policy Review

This Policy must be reviewed at least annually to ensure it remains current, effective, and aligned with relevant legal, regulatory, and operational requirements.

The Policy may be reviewed and updated more frequently where there is a material change in applicable legislation, business operations, risk environment, or other relevant circumstances that warrant earlier review. Responsibility for the review lies with the Policy Owner.

Webjet Group Limited
Level 2, 509 St Kilda Road | Melbourne, Victoria 3004 | Australia

www.webjetgroup.com